Additional Fees

Additional fees will be assessed in most of the following cases: Heavy accents, tapes with long gaps or recording flaws, poorly miked interviews, focus groups or telephone interviews. We will contact you to obtain approval for additional fees and discuss transcription quality and accuracy.

Terms: One line equals 65 keystrokes. (characters with spaces). FSSI strives to deliver complete and accurate transcription. Poor recording quality, dialects or simultaneous talking effects audio and may result in higher fees, gaps and limited accuracy. Interviews on micro-cassettes or recordings in public places almost always compromise quality. Rush-service not always available.
Guarantee: Should there be any dissatisfaction, we correct transcription within 1 week after delivery. Refunds cannot be granted. All work is confidential. FSSI does not accept liability for tapes damaged or lost. Please make a copy! Tapes not picked up after 30 days will be discarded.
